End of Civil War Commemorated

14th Ward Alderman Edward M. Burke (center) presided over a ceremony at the St. Jane de Chantal Church bell tower to mark the 150th Anniversary of the end of the Civil War. All places of worship in Chicago were encouraged to toll their church bells at 2:15 p.m. on April 9th, recalling the moment when Confederate General Robert E. Lee surrendered to Union General Ulysses S. Grant at Appomattox Court House, Virginia. The local ceremony coincided with the ringing of bells across America at historical sites such as Appomattox Court House in Virginia and the Old North Church in Boston, as well as churches, parks, historical sites, and museums, in at least 37 states. Also pictured are: 18th Ward Alderman-Elect Derrick Curtis, 23rd Ward Alderman Michael R. Zalewski, Congressman Daniel Lipinski and Deputy Mayor Steve Koch. Mayor Rahm Emanuel issued a statement praising Burke, the City Council's unofficial historian, for organizing the sesquicentennial event. "Let us hope that in the spirit of Abraham Lincoln, the "Great Emancipator" who lost his life to an assassin's bullet just six days after the surrender at Appomattox, that his quest to bind up the nation's wounds in the aftermath of Civil War will live on in our evolving world," Burke said.

School Conferences

BY DR. R. PLETSCHE

Most CPS Elementary and Middle Schools have Parent-Teacher Conferences Thursday, April 16th. While hours may vary, if you are unsure contact your school. If at all possible, you should try and make this important date. Everyone realizes with Spring Break and religious holidays many have let this slip their minds.

This is an important way to show our children just how we value education. We know without being told that our children constantly observe us. There is no doubt "actions speak louder than words". Think of all the harm people have done their children over the years by not living up to what they know is best for the kids.

We tell them one thing, but our actions say another. We laugh when someone is high or drunk, we tell little white lies to avoid trouble and so on. No wonder some rely on that quote "do as I say, not as I do".

Leadership Camp At McKinley Park

McKinley Park, 2210 W. Pershing rd. will conduct a free leadership camp for ages 13-16 on weekdays, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. from June 29th to Aug. 7th.

Service to the park will be combined with fun activities. For more information, call (312) 747-6527.

One of the axioms that has been part of American life is that "we want our kids to have it better than we did". You cannot depend on winning the lottery, but if you show that education is to be desired, respected and taken seriously that would be a great measure for your kids. When we teach children to live with dignity, by example not just words, we are helping set their moral tone. We show respect for education by making it to school-related activities.

Please remember, a C means average and if your son or daughter gets C's it is no disgrace and if "everyone else gets A's and B's" -- shame on the school for having no standards. Hope you can make it and attend with an open mind and heart.

Painting Depicts Armenian Genocide

To mark the 100th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide and the death and displacement of millions of Armenians, a descendant of the survivors has created an enormous work of art to both honor the victims and survivors and to celebrate the enduring strength and culture of the Armenian people.

Chicago artist Jackie Kazarian has titled the piece "Armenia" in the same dimensions (11.5 X 26 feet) as Pablo Picasso's famous painting Guernica.

Armenia (Hayasdan) is the culmination of two years of historical research and a lifetime of memories for Kazarian, whose grandparents fled their birthplace in historic Armenia, now part of Turkey, before World War I and emigrated to the United States. Beginning in 1915, an estimated 1.5 million Armenians died at the hands of the Ottoman Turks, along with numerous Greeks, Assyrians and other ethnic minorities. The painting will be publicly unveiled during an opening reception in the artist's studio at Mana Contemporary, 2233 S. Throop, on April 17 from 6-9 pm. Kazarian will also give a talk about the project at her studio at 4 p.m. Studies and a video are available at www.project1915.org.
