Pictured are Alderman Burke, retired Army Major General James Mukoyama, retired Navy Admiral Cecil Haney and Navy Chaplain Lieutenant Stephen Thompson.

14th Ward Alderman Edward M. Burke recently participated in a Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day ceremony at Soldier Field which paid homage to those who lost their lives 76 years ago. The event was sponsored by the Chicago Navy Memorial Foundation and Chicago Park District. "On that day of unimaginable destruction the Japanese naval task force sank, damaged or ran aground 17 American vessels, including five battleships: the Arizona, California, West Virginia, Oklahoma, and Utah," Burke said as he recounted the attack. "170 planes were destroyed. The human toll was devastating with 2,400 lives lost and 1,200 wounded in the carnage."

CPS High School Applications Due

By Dr. R. Pletsch

Time is running short for 8th graders who intend to register for a Chicago Public School next fall. The application for all CPS high schools is on one form. To register on the form the student must open an account at go.cps.edu Information about every CPS high school is available on this site.

It is a great place for students and parents to sort through the enormous amount of available schools. Once the program is set, it already has the student's scores and attendance record. It then gives a list of all the schools for which they have good enough scores to apply.

The family then can choose up to six selective enrollment schools and up to 20 schools with other programs, such as International Baccalaureate, Military Academies, Magnet programs, and other specialty programs.

Literacy Center Needs Volunteers

Aquinas Literacy Center, 1715 W. 35th St., needs volunteer tutors to address the need of adult education in English as a Second Language.

All instruction is one-on-one for 90 minutes per week and training is provided. Knowledge of a second language is not required; all instruction is in English.

The next Tutor Training Workshop is scheduled for Friday, Jan. 26th (6 p.m. - 9 p.m.) and Saturday, Jan. 27th (9 a.m. - 4 p.m.). Tutors must attend both days for certification.

For more information, contact Sabrina Poulin, Volunteer Coordinator, at (773) 927-0512 or email her at Sabrina@aquinasliteracycenter.org.

reate, Military Academies, Magnet programs, and other specialty programs.

This program, because it lists all the schools for which the student would be eligible, eliminates being anxious over attendance at a school that cannot accept the student anyway. This application must be completed by December 22, 2017.

It is available in both English and Spanish. Part of the process includes ranking the schools that you choose from your favorite to your least favorite. The one situation to be aware of is that all of the selective enrollment schools require an extra test.

Sometimes more people apply for a school than the school can handle. If you choose one of these schools, there is a waiting list process explained on the website.

The students will receive an "offer to attend". In most cases it will be one from each list. The counselors at the schools have been helping the students understand this process and open accounts. I sincerely thank the staff at Evergreen Academy Middle School for walking me through the process.

It is very important for those who are in private schools or being home schooled to go to the website to familiarize yourself with requirements, noting the students must take the NWEA MAP test. That procedure is available on the website.

All Chicago residents are entitled to attend their neighborhood school without a minimum score. However, it is suggested to open an account and read all the data. We have fine neighborhood schools but if you want to get into one of their special programs, you must list it on this single application.

Levinson Nears Masters Degree

Elizabeth Levinson has been applying the tools of science, education and conservation to become a leader in the conservation community. In mid-December she is expected to conclude her master's course of study with a Master of Arts in Teaching degree in the Biological Sciences from Miami University of Oxford, Ohio through Project Dragonfly.

Since joining the Advanced Inquiry Program master's in 2014, she has traveled to Galapagos and taken courses on the web from Miami University while participating in on-site and field studies at Brookfield Zoo.

Levinson is the director of North Lawndale College Prep High School's Writing Center.

Nominations For Heroes Award

Members of Chicago and northern Illinois communities have 30 days left to nominate candidates for the 2018 American Red Cross Heroes Breakfast. Nominations are due Jan. 12th for 11 categories including good Samaritans, outstanding nurses, global citizens, military and law enforcement. To nominate a hero, fill out the online nominations form.

Every year the event honors local community members who have demonstrated heroism through extraordinary acts of courage of kindness or in some way have exemplified the Red Cross mission to help people in need.

Honorees will be recognized at the 16th annual American Red Cross Heroes Breakfast on Thursday, May 3rd at the Hilton Chicago, 720 S. Michigan ave.

For more information, visit redcross.org.

Participants should meet at the parking lot (47th and Cornell dr.); bring binoculars and dress for the weather, rain or shine.

Winter Programs At Area Parks

The Chicago Park District announced online registration for winter park programming is now open.

Residents are taking part in Park District programming in record numbers because they offer unparalleled variety, affordability and convenience," said Mayor Emanuel. "No matter your age, neighborhood or income level, Parks has something for everyone and is helping to keep our residents active and engaged all year long."

In-person registration begins either Saturday, Dec. 9th or Monday, Dec. 11th, depending upon the park. Most winter programs run from the week of Jan. 18th to the week of March 12th.

Winter park programs run the gamut from fitness and gymnastics classes to swimming and basketball activities. Wellness programs provide varied options for winter physical activity and focus on helping patrons of all ages maintain a healthy lifestyle. Teens and adults registering for winter sports leagues also have a safe place to convene and engage in healthy play.

Winter break camps offer children a safe place to socialize and stay engaged with sports, arts and crafts and cultural activities while school is out, starting the week of Dec. 25th.

For more information, visit www.chicagoparkdistrict.com or call (312) 742-PLAY.

Scouts Seek Fire Safety Badge

Members of Boy Scout Troop #1439, of St Symphorosa who are working on their fire safety merit badge visited the Fire house at 5555 S Narragansett. CFD Lt. Sanders briefed them on the facility, equipment and procedures. His father, Howard Sanders is a lifelong member of the Holy Name of Jesus Society at Five Holy Martyrs Parish. Pictured in front row are Elias Lopez and Richard Mercado. Top row: Alejandro Arellano, Nathan Aburto, Matthew Bielski, Benicio Flores and Lt. Sanders.

Essay Winners At De La Salle

De La Salle Institute recently held its first grammar school writing contest. Seventh and eighth-grade students from seven Catholic grammar schools were asked to write a maximum 500-word response regarding the topic "In a 1971 speech, Pope Paul VI said, 'If you want peace, work for justice.' How do you think justice and peace relate to each other? How has your Catholic education prepared you to work for justice?"

The contest was hosted by faculty members and writing coordinators Michael Dieter, Justin Costello-Stebelton and Ian McNair.

Out of 143 entries the winners were: 1st place - Aimee Cruz, St. Thomas of Canterbury; 2nd place - Julian Munoz, St. Daniel the Prophet; 3rd place - Samantha Muth, St. Christina; 4th place - Daniel Grobla, St. Daniel the Prophet and 5th place - Vivian Nguyen, St. Thomas of Canterbury.

"It is evident that the participants are gaining an appreciation for the importance of justice to the Catholic mission," Dieter said. "Many students had very creative ideas for promoting justice not only in their schools, but across society as a whole." Another contest is scheduled for Spring of 2018.

ISAC Announces State Scholars

The Illinois Student Assistance Commission announces the names of the 2018-19 Illinois State Scholars who rank in approximately the top ten percent of high school seniors from 737 high schools across the state. Honorees are chosen based on a combination of exemplary ACT or SAT test scores and sixth semester class rank.

While the recognition does not include a monetary award, honorees will receive a congratulatory letter, Certificates of Achievement and a digital badge, which can be displayed on their online profiles and social media accounts.

All students, who plan to be enrolled in college next fall are urged to complete their 2018-19 Free Application for Federal Student Aid as soon as possible in order to determine eligibility for federal and state financial aid. Students can also visit the ISAC Student Portal for college planning, financial aid and financial literacy information. For more information at www.isac.org/studentportal.

A-R Kiwanis Club Honors Lihosit

At presentation of Community Service Award are Ron Nawrocki, Archer Road Kiwanis director, honoree Stan Lihosit and Jim Zagorski, ARK president.

The Archer Road Kiwanis and Youth Foundation recently honored Stanley Lihosit for his 48 plus years of volunteer service to the Archer Heights Community.

He attended St. Peter and Paul Elementary school, graduated from Tilden Technical High school in 1952, continued his education at the University of Illinois in Chicago and graduated from De Paul University in 1956 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Commerce.

Stan married Ann Subko in 1956, established residency in the Archer Heights Community and are the parents of four sons and have eight grandchildren. A long time Spiegel's employee, he retired after 43 years of service.

After joining St. Bruno Parish, Stan served as usher for over 52 years, as parish council president for 3 years and Finance committee chairman for 20 years. Membership in the St. Vincent De Paul Society, marks 47 years and as president for 6 years.

The Archer Heights Civic Association has received 45 years of service, as president for 17 years and executive director for 10 years. Stan served as the first president of the Curie High School Council and continued for 11 years. He was an active member of the Midway Airport noise abatement commission which sound-proofed over 10,000 homes and 50 schools around the airport.

Lihosit was largely responsible in obtaining the Archer Park land for a baseball field and diamond. A longtime member of the Archer Road Kiwanis Club, he assists in their fund raising peanut day and Fashion Show for youth programs.

Chicago Trolley Sets Holiday Tour

Chicago Trolley and Double Decker Co. will conduct the annual Holiday Lights Tour through Dec. 23rd. A Chicago tradition for all ages, the Holiday Lights Tour explores the city's iconic seasonal landmarks, such as the Macy's Holiday Windows, Christkindlmarket and Lincoln Park Zoo Lights for a one-of-a-kind evening taking in the magic of the holidays. Each tour begins at the John Hancock Plaza Tree, 875 N. Michigan, where riders board festively-named trolleys and then travel to Sprinkles Cupcakes to receive a complimentary hand-crafted cupcake before heading down the Magnificent Mile to take in the glittering lights and begin the tour.

The 2 1/2 hour tour begins at the John Hancock Plaza Tree and takes passengers past the Macy's Holiday Windows, to The Loop's German-inspired Christkindlmarket to the lights and music at Lincoln Park's Zoo Lights.

For ticket information, visit ChicagoTrolley.com or call (773) 646-5000.

Pop-Up Programs At Planetarium

This winter break (Dec. 26th-30th) guests visiting the Adler Planetarium can enjoy STEAM-focused (science, technology, engineering, art, and math) programming during its second annual Pop-Up Programs event. Each day, three to four programs designed to spark engagement, curiosity, and fun for the whole family will "pop-up" throughout the museum. Programs are included with regular admission. Additionally, guests can enjoy extended open hours from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Guests can enjoy a drop-in engineering or art workshop in Curiosity Classroom from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. as well as science experiments, technology and coding, dancing and physical games, and other hands-on activities. For more information, visit: <http://www.adlerplanetarium.org/events/pop-up-programs/>

The schedule as of Dec. 4th includes:

Tuesday, Dec. 26th - Pumping Station: One, Curiosity Classroom, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Explore various ways of making things move with simple and clever machines, with and without technology.

Crazy 8s Math Club, Our Solar System, 1 to 3 p.m. Do the math to make your own Origami shooting stars and see how far they can fly.

Power Up Tech Academy, Mission Moon, 2 to 4 p.m. Write your own animations and games that guide a rocket to land safely on the Moon.

Wednesday, Dec. 27th Seventh Green Circle, Curiosity Classroom, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Art Sculpture: Create "space" in an artistic and unique way by using colorful paper and watercolor pencils to create transparency and an organic feel.

Wonder Works Children's Museum, Planet Explorers, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Investigate and identify a variety of rocks. You'll even get a rock to take home.

TechGirlz, Mission Moon, 1 to 3 p.m. Learn to program an Edison robot using EdBlocks and an iPad.

SciTech Hands on Museum, Our Solar System, 2 to 4 p.m. Topology: various hands-on activities, including large and small puzzles, that dive into the study of interacting solids as they fold and bend.

Thursday, Dec. 28th: Project SYNCERE, Curiosity Classroom, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Using the Engineering Design Process (and the materials provided), you will design, construct, and test a wind-powered car.

High Touch - High Tech, Mission Moon, 12 to 2 p.m. Edison's Workshop: Explore the amazing world of electricity. Learn what's "current" as you build circuits and much more.

Design Dance, Our Solar System, 2 to 4 p.m. Move your way through the Solar System! Play games, learn movement, and work together to demonstrate and gain an understanding of planetary motion.

Analytix Lounge, Atwood Hallway, 1 to 4 p.m. What's it Made of?: Explore what things around us -- including historical artifacts, rocks, and coins -- are made of using portable X-Ray fluorescence.

Friday, Dec. 29th: NeuroKitchen's Curiosity Club, Curiosity Classroom, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Come explore Dark Matter and discover the invisible web that supports the structures of the Cosmos on the largest scales. You will help to build a large, three-dimensional fabric installation representing Dark Matter, and decorate it with tiny galaxies.

Steve and Kate's Camp, Mission Moon, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Create a space-themed stop motion animation movie. You get to choose your characters, setting, and how long or short you want it to be.

Project Exploration, Our Solar System, 1 to 4 p.m. Interact with several engineering challenges in a fun and engaging way, and build something to take home.

Saturday, Dec. 30th: Engineering for Kids, Curiosity Classroom, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. & Our Solar System, 1 to 3 p.m. Incredible Flying Machines: Paper Airplanes/ Rockets: Exploring the principles of flight and aerodynamics.

Galileo Camps, Mission Moon, 1 to 4 p.m. BristleBots: Learn about circuits and conductivity in a fun way.

Holiday Magic At Brookfield Zoo

Brookfield Zoo's 36th annual Holiday Magic presented by ComEd and Meijer, offers guests 12 enchanted evenings to enjoy the lights and so much more from 4 to 9 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 16th & 17th and the week of Dec. 26th-31st.

Zoogers can enjoy caroling to the animals, live entertainment, professional ice-carving demonstrations, visits with Santa and Mrs. Claus (through Dec. 17th) and more than 600 lit community-decorated trees that line the malls. Around Roosevelt Fountain, nearly 60 local corporations decorated "dancing" trees that will be set to holiday-themed tunes, and the 41-foot-tall Talking Tree is back to interact with guests.

Guests can enjoy visiting animal habitats, restaurants, and gift shops. A packed schedule of music and live entertainment in the Holly Jolly Theater, magic shows, costumed characters, and a model railroad display will add to the festivities.

Through Dec. 18th, youngsters can share their wish lists and pose for pictures with Santa and Mrs. Claus in the North Pole workshop located in the Seven Seas Underwater Viewing gallery. Photos can be taken with some of the animal ambassadors.

Many habitats, includ-

Author Dragan At Bookie's

Author Kathleen Dragan will be reading from and signing her new book Rickshaw Reggie: Chicago's Neighborhoods at Bookie's, 10324 S. Western ave., on Sunday, Dec. 17th at 2 p.m. Admission is free and open to the public. Michael's Music Machine will provide an afternoon of singing, reading, and dancing.

Charlie thinks he knows everything about Chicago: deep-dish pizza, baseball, and tall buildings. What else is there to see? Then he meets Rickshaw Reggie. On a magical tour of Chicago's many neighborhoods, he learns the real city begins at the edge of his imagination. From Lincoln Park to Hyde Park, from the Indian Boundary Line to the Pullman cars, Rickshaw Reggie shows Charlie and his grandma the who, what, where, and when of the Windy City.

Christmas Exhibit At Science Museum

The Museum of Science and Industry, 5700 S. Lake Shore drive will celebrate the 75th anniversary of Christmas Around the World and Holidays of Light through Jan. 7th from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Guests are invited to celebrate dozens of holiday customs with trees and displays, including three new additions, decorated to represent cultures from across the globe.

Christmas Around the World began in 1942 as a United Nations Day salute to the Allies during World War II. In its first year, a single tree was newly decorated every day for 12 days to represent the countries fighting alongside America during World War II. Today, the exhibit has grown to more than 50 trees and displays.

Now in its 23rd year, Holidays of Light highlights the holidays that honor light or enlightenment with decorated vitrines containing symbolic objects that showcase Chinese New Year, Diwali, Kwanzaa, Ramadan, Hanukkah, Visakha Puja Day, and St. Lucia Day.

Inside the domed Rotunda stands the 45-foot-tall Grand Tree, adorned with more than 30,000 twinkling lights and ornaments. Guests can also enjoy festive holiday music and "snow" falling every half hour on the Main Floor.

Guests will notice three additional trees from Assyria, Australia, and Nigeria.

Children can meet Santa, December 14th - 17th and 21st and 23rd.

Christmas Around the World and Holidays of Light are included in Museum Entry, as are all cultural performances.

The museum will offer extended hours until 5:30 p.m. on Dec. 16th - 23rd and 26th - 30th.

New Year Fest At Brookfield Zoo

This New Year's Eve, Sunday, Dec. 31st, Brookfield Zoo invites families and friends to ring in 2018 at its annual Zoo Year's Eve celebration.

Festivities get underway at 6 p.m. with a DJ, who will have the Holly Jolly Theater rockin' and rollin' with music, fun games, party favors, prizes and more. The early countdown culminates with confetti cannons being set off at 8 p.m. Families with children under age 6 are welcomed to venture over to Hamill Family Play Zoo, where kids can make noisemakers while enjoying an early, kid-friendly New Year's countdown at 8 p.m.

The final days of Holiday Magic are Dec. 16th-17th and 26th-31st from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. At 4 p.m. guests may stroll throughout the zoo lit with more than one million LED lights and new light displays. The North Mall is aglow with a spectacular 19-foot-tall orb lit with 20,000 colored lights, making for memorable photo opportunities. Larger-than life bison, giraffe, bear animal figures and a gigantic reindeer created from telephone poles will be surrounded by lit spheres. Searchlights will illuminate the sky at Roosevelt Fountain, the Formal Pool, and North Gate. Guests can view hexagon-shaped trees that "dance" to music. Lining the walkways along the four malls and around Roosevelt Fountain are more than 600 lit trees decorated with ornaments by communities and corporations.

Holiday Magic also features a full schedule of music and live entertainment, professional ice carving demonstrations, magic shows, costumed characters who will greet zoogoers of all ages, a model train display, and an animated video accompanied to holiday tunes that will illuminate the front of The Swamp, a 41-foot Talk Tree, singing to the animals.

Zoo Year's Eve activities are free with general zoo admission of $19.85 for adults and $14.50 for children 3-11 and seniors 65 and over. Parking is $12. Discounted tickets may be purchased at Meijer locations. Guests should park in the main parking lot (First Avenue and 31st Street).
