EUC Insurance To Continue

The federal Emergency Unemployment Compensation insurance program will continue through Dec. 2013 according to the Illinois Department of Employment Security.

Congress extended the Emergency Unemployment Compensation program as part of the fiscal cliff negotiations. As such, Illinois workers collecting EUC should continue to certify for benefits. Congress did not add new weeks to the federal unemployment insurance program. Therefore, individuals who exhausted EUC are not eligible for additional unemployment insurance benefits.

Had Congress not reauthorized the program, 90,000 Illinois claimants would have received their last EUC payment within the next two weeks. Additionally, 2,800 individuals each week would have completed the state's Regular Unemployment Insurance program and not had access to the federal EUC.

Extending EUC will not alleviate IDES' budget pressures. The Illinois department receives operational funding entirely from the federal government. Funding levels are tied to the number of people collecting unemployment insurance. Fewer people collecting state unemployment insurance means an $11 million annual cut.

These cuts come at a time when the numbers of claims remain 38 percent higher than prior to the recession. The fiscal cliff negotiations, also called the sequester, did not resolve cuts to budgets such as IDES'. Congress delayed by two months the date the sequester takes effect. IDES still stands to lose an additional $17 million in operating funds.

To address these budget challenges, IDES has stopped scheduling 216 intermittent employees, consolidated eight offices and vacated 10 outpost locations. The federal cuts might necessitate further service reductions, including additional office consolidations.

Illinois businesses provide the state's 25-week regular unemployment program for claims initiated in 2012. The federal EUC, divided into Tiers I, II, III and IV, provide the next 53 weeks of unemployment insurance. The federally funded Extended Benefits program provided the final 20 weeks. It expired in May 2012.

Christmas Party At Youth Center

The Blessed Sacrament Teen Center, 3528 S. Hermitage hosted its annual Christmas party on Dec. 20th. Throughout the afternoon, teens enjoyed juice, Christmas cookies, and sang Christmas Carols. The evening concluded with a visit from Santa Claus with gifts from multiple donors.

The program offers resources for youth ages twelve to eighteen to enjoy a safe and relaxing atmosphere after school. Teens have the opportunity to get help with homework, play sports, and interact with other teens.

The Youth Center is open on Sundays from 7 to 9:30 p.m., Tuesdays from 3 to 5:30 p.m. and Wednesdays through Fridays from 3 to 7.

Free Programs At A-H Library

The Archer Heights Branch Library, 5055 S. Archer, has scheduled several interesting programs.

300th Win For De La Salle Coach

T. WHITE

De La Salle Institute announces that boys basketball coach Tom White won the 300th game of his career in the Meteor's 51-40 victory over Hinsdale Central in the second round of the Hinsdale South Thanksgiving Tournament on Nov. 23rd.

White, who has been the head coach at De La Salle since the beginning of the 1995-96 season, has a career record of 308-158 for a winning percentage of .661.

Two of his former players are competing in NCAA Division I men's college basketball with Derek Needham at Fairfield University in Connecticut and Michael Shaw at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Current De La Salle senior Alvin Ellis will play basketball at the University of Minnesota next season.

Nominations For Volunteer Awards

Governor Pat Quinn and the Serve Illinois Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service are accepting nominations for the 4th Annual Governor's Volunteer Service Awards. Businesses that support service will also be recognized.

Individual awards will be presented to one youth (18 years and under), one adult (19-54 years old) and one retiree/senior (55 years and older) in each of the Commission's five service regions.

National Service Awards will be presented to one AmeriCorps and one Senior Corps member in each of the five regions. One award will be provided to business in each of the five service regions.

Applications will be given special priority based on the areas: economic opportunity, education, environmental conservation, disaster preparedness/response, health and veterans affairs.

Nominations are due by Feb. 15th. Visit www.serve.illinois.gov for nomination forms and more information. Recipients will be selected and notified by March 30th.

The Commission will host a luncheon to honor recipients on April 18th at the Executive Mansion in Springfield.

Art Contest On Youth Drinking

Underage drinking prevention and education have always been a priority at the Liquor Commission, as best exemplified by its Don't Be Sorry public awareness campaign. Coming this Spring, these efforts will see a renewed focus through the unveiling of a new statewide art contest designed by the teens.

Bunco Social For Lung Diseases

The South Suburban Salon #480 invites everyone to attend a Bunco Social at the Mt. Greenwood Park fieldhouse, 3721 W. 111th on Saturday, Jan. 12th at noon.

Donation at door is $3 with free coffee and cake. Lunch will be available at a nominal fee.

There will be raffle table of prizes and a cash raffle. Proceeds will be used for children's facilities that treat Cystic fibrosis, tuberculosis and other lung diseases.

For more information, call (773) 376-2711.

"While our Don't Be Sorry program has been a great success, we are constantly looking for ways to improve its delivery," says ILCC Education Manager Ted Penesis.

"Participants will submit designs for a new program to educate adults, teens and liquor retailers on the consequences of underage drinking."

A panel of judges will review submissions and choose the winning design.

For contest guidelines, instructions and submission procedures visit www.DontBeSorry.org. All copy and artwork must be submitted by Feb. 15th, 2013.

MWRD Board Elects Officers

Metropolitan Water Reclamation District officials are, front row: vice president Barbara McGowan, president Kathleen Therese Meany and commissioner Mariyana Spyropoulos. Back row: commissioners Patrick D. Thompson, Kari K. Steele, Frank Avila, Debra Shore, Cynthia Santos and Michael Alvarez.

Kathleen Therese Meany was unanimously elected by her eight fellow Commissioners to serve as president of the Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago Board of Commissioners during the first meeting of the new year.

Vice president Barbara McGowan was re-elected to her post, while Commissioner Mariyana Spyropoulos was elected to serve as chairman of Finance Committee assignments will be made at the next board meeting on Jan. 17th.

Meany was first elected to the Board in 1990, served as vice president for 16 years and is currently chairman of the Committee on Public Information and Education and the Committee on Ethics. She also chaired the Committee on Federal Legislation for 18 years.

One of her earliest achievements was to introduce a program to collect and properly dispose of household hazardous waste which previously was discharged into the sewer system.

A retired assistant professor of Political Science at Harold Washington College, Meany holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Education from Roosevelt University and a Master's Degree from Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government.

Start Up For Food Business
Entrepreneurs throughout the U.S. are starting food manufacturing businesses. The University of Nebraska's Food Processing Center is helping to ensure their success through a program that helps new entrepreneurs understand key issues in the startup process and provides assistance in developing a food business. The first phase of the program is the "Recipe to Reality" seminar in Chicago on May 17th which addresses market research, product development, packaging, labeling, pricing, product introduction, promotional materials, food safety, and legal and business structure issues. Participants may then choose to enter the "Product to Profit" phase which provides comprehensive, individualized and confidential assistance from food scientists and business consultants. Pre-registration is required. To receive a Food Entrepreneur Assistance Program information packet, call (402) 472-2819, or e-mail: jgifford1@unl.edu.

Metra Sponsors Safety Contest

Metra announces the 7th Annual Safety Poster Contest with the theme: "Take Care, Be Aware: Look, Listen and Live." Winners will be selected from each grade, K-12, and awarded the following prizes: first place, iPad; second place: $250 gift card and third place: $100 gift card.

Winning designs will be distributed to more than 2,000 schools in northeastern Illinois, featured in Metra's Safety Calendar, on the contest website, in station displays and on monthly tickets.

Metra will also recognize the school that submits the most entries in the 2012-13 contest by awarding it a new computer compatible with its current system. Every school's entries will be totaled after the contest deadline on March 15th, 2013 and a computer will be presented to the winning school.

The 5th annual Safety Essay Contest requires participants to tell in 300 words or less why it is important to "Take Care, Be Aware" when near trains and railroad tracks. First place winners will also receive an iPad.

For more information about the contest rules and guidelines, as well as downloadable entry forms, logos and poster templates, go to the contest website www.metra-contest.com

Teachers will find useful information in the Teachers Section of the website including fact sheets, coloring pages and bulletin board displays to help integrate railroad safety into lesson plans, as well as games and information sheets for parents and driver education instructors.
