Valentine's Treats For Zoo Animals

Brookfield Zoo's grey seals Tasha and Boone give their seal of approval for the heart-shaped gelatin and ice treats they received for Valentine's Day. The Animal Programs staff for the Chicago Zoological Society is always thinking of ways to physically and mentally stimulate the animals. One way is by providing them with a variety of different enrichment and food items they normally do not receive on a regular basis.

Pulaski will hold the opening reception for an exhibit honoring the 80th anniversary of Darius and Girenas Heroic Trans-Atlantic Flight on Friday, March 1st at 7 p.m. Lithuanian - American pilots Steponas Darius and Stasys Girenas took off from New York bound to Kuanas Lithuania, on July 15th, 1933, on the Lituania, a Belanca CH-300 Pace-maker airplane. They covered a distance of 3,984 miles without landing before crashing in the then territory of Germany. 404 miles from their destination. Admission is $10.

GENERAL PULASKI

The public is invited to celebrate Pulaski Day at The Polish Museum of America, 984 N. Milwaukee ave. on Monday, March 4th at 10 a.m. A short program of speakers will take place. General Pulaski is recognized as the "Father of the American Cavalry" when he offered his services as an experienced military leader to the American Continental Army during the American Revolutionary War. At the insistence of General George Washington, Pulaski was made a Brigadier General and the first Commander of the American Cavalry. He established the Pulaski Legion, a corps of Frenchmen, German Russians and Poles, who were instrumental in saving the City of Charleston, South Carolina, from British occupation in 1779. In October of 1779, at the age of 32, he died from mortal wounds received while leading a cavalry charge in Savannah, Georgia. Refreshments will follow in the Social Hall on the first floor. Free parking is available in two lots to the west of the building.
