Archbishop of Krakow, Poland and former personal secretary to Pope John Paul II.

The relic is a drop of blood on a cloth protected by a lunula which has been mounted into a reliquary.

Since receiving this relic, the parish has begun a new tradition on the first Sunday of the month by sharing interesting facts, stories, and poems about him in a bulletin insert; by offering up petitions to God through his intercession and venerating his relic at the 9 a.m. English and 11 a.m. Polish Masses; reciting the prayer for his canonization as a community of believers; and by receiving a special blessing with the relic at the end of Mass.

After these two Masses, parishioners and friends are invited to gather in the Bishop Abramowicz Parish Hall for cake, coffee, and fellowship. All parish, cultural and neighborhood organizations are invited to attend the Anniversary Mass on Oct. 5th and walk in the entrance procession.

For more information, contact the Parish Office at (773) 254-3636 weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Chicago Zoological Society is accepting submissions for its 2014 photo contest through Oct. 20th.

The grand prize is a behind-the-scenes adventure with Brookfield Zoo's giraffes. The winner and up to five guests will have the opportunity to get to know the giraffe herd and even feed them some of their favorite food items.

Photo submissions should be 8 x 10 inches and either color or black-and-white, and they must feature an animal, although they do not have to be taken at Brookfield Zoo.

To enter, fill out an entry form and tape it to the back of the photo (one entry per person). Forms and contest rules are available at www.CZS.org/PhotoContest, the information kiosks or by calling (708) 688-8351.

Judges will select one grand-prize winner plus first-, second-, and third-place winner in two age categories: adult (12 and older) and child (11 and under). Winners will be invited to an awards reception on Saturday, Nov. 15th.

St. Richard Celebrates Law Enforcement

St. Richard School and Parish celebrated the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel on Sept. 29th. All law enforcement which includes city and suburban police officers, Cook County sheriffs, mounted police, canine, helicopter, and bicycle units were invited to attend in uniform and receive a special blessing and a gift of St. Michael given by Father Kris Janczak. Also pictured at far right is Mrs. Mary Kate Warco, principal.

Writing Contest For Students

Secretary of State and State Librarian Jesse White is urging students in grades 4 through 12 to enter the 2015 "Letters about Literature" contest - a national reading and writing competition sponsored by the Illinois Center of the Book.

Students are invited to read a book of their choice and write a letter to the author about how the book changed their life or view of the world. Students can enter on their own or through the schools, libraries or other youth organizations.

There are three levels of participations Level I for grades 4-6, Level II for grades 7-8 and Level III for grades 9-12. One Illinois winner will be selected for each level and receive a $200 cash award. Teachers of the winning students will receive a $100 cash award to purchase materials for their school library. Winners and teachers will be invited to an awards ceremony in Springfield. The state winners' letters will be forwarded for national judging.

The deadline to enter the competition is Monday, Dec. 15th for Level III and Thursday, Jan. 15th, 2015 for Levels I and II. State winners will be announced in April 2015. For more information, contact Bonnie Matheis at (217) 558-2065.

Paper Craft Club

The Brighton Park Branch Library, 4314 S. Archer invites children in grades 4 through 8 to join Paper Corps, a paper crafts club which includes origami, quilling and paper maché.

Registration is encouraged so there are enough craft supplies for all. The first meeting will be held on Monday, Oct. 20th from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. To register, call (312) 747-0666.

Band Workshops For 6th-8th Grades

Kelly High School announces a free Saturday program from 9-11:30 a.m., offering lessons and opportunities to become better musicians. The Trojan Pride All-Star Band Program will provide extra assistance from the Band teachers and student leaders on woodwind, brass, or percussion instruments.

The program is designed for 6th-8th grade students to prepare for their future high school band experience by learning introduction to concert, marching, and jazz bands. Parents and students are instructed to park in the Archer lot and enter through Door 12. For more information, contact Richard Daily at rjdaily@cps.edu or (773) 535-4904.

Galvan Receives Learning Award

Maria G. Galvan was awarded a Love of Learning award worth $500 by The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, the nation's oldest collegiate honor society for all academic disciplines.

A kindergarten teacher at St. Pius V School, she plans to apply funds from the award toward tuition at Concordia University to pursue a master's degree.

Ms. Galvan was initiated into the Society in 2012 at DePaul University.

School Fair

There will be a School Fair at McCormick Place -- Lakeside Center, this Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 3rd and 4th, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.. Schools from The Archdiocese of Chicago, The Illinois Network of Charter Schools, and Chicago Public Schools will be there to inform you about their programs and make you more aware of the programs like the Military Schools, the STEM Schools, and the IB Schools.

The Sun-Times ran an article with legitimate concerns about the Parent Power Chicago organization that is running the Fair. Despite this, it is a good opportunity if you have a child in 7th or 8th grade and are looking toward the future. You may discover a school you never heard of, but is attractive to your family.

How do we choose a school for our kids? The truth is most schools have extremely similar curriculum, and all have their share of great teachers. Your concern that will be hard to follow at a Fair is simply "will my child be safe, and will they be attending classes with students that want to be there and intend to graduate". I did a short study on how kids and parents pick high schools and most of the kids want to go to a school that their friends are at and most

Guest Speaker

JUDGE T. FLANAGAN

Judge Thomas E. Flanagan, presently assigned to the Law Division of the Circuit of Cook County, will address the Senior Polka Association at the May-field Banquet Hall, 6072 S. Archer on Thursday, Oct. 2nd at 11 a.m.

Judge Flanagan is a graduate of St. Ignatius High School, Loyola University and received his law degree from University of Chicago Law School.

First elected in 1984, he has been on the bench for 30 years.

Film Showing Of Battle of Warsaw

The Archer Heights Branch library, 5055 S. Archer, will observe Polish American Heritage Month with a program on Saturday, Oct. 4th at 2 p.m.

Ireneusz Raciborski, Polish historian and film critic will present a film documentary "The Battle of Warsaw, 1944."

The Warsaw Uprising was the largest and bloodiest military operation undertaken by any resistant movement in World War II. The film contains unique testimony from Polish, British and German participants.

Food Drive At Washington Bank

Washington Federal Bank, 2869 S. Archer, will host a food drive through Oct. 25th to support Benton House's community food pantry.

15% of area residents don't have regular access to nutritious food. The Food Pantry meets this need by distributing thousands of pounds of food to over 100 families every week.

Some of the recommended items are: canned fruit and vegetables, cereal, chili, jelly, macaroni and cheese, pasta, pasta sauce, peanut butter, rice, soup, stew and tuna.

Blessing of Pets

To celebrate the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, Father Tomasz Sielicki, SChr., pastor of Five Holy Martyrs Parish, will conduct a special blessing for animals in the church courtyard, 4327 S. Richmond on Saturday, Oct. 4th at 12 p.m. All are invited to participate.
