Kelly High's SkillsUSA Community Reach Out Project

Students from Kelly's SkillsUSA Chapter continued with their Community Reach Out Program by conducting a Winter Clothing Drive. Their intent was to continue to develop their relationship and commitment to Shields Elementary School, by collecting new and gently used winter clothing, garments and apparel for students and families in need.

Daniela Nunez, a junior officer and chairperson for this activity stated, "We originally set a goal to collect 100 winter jackets and succeeded in exceeding it." Over 115 winter jackets, 30 sweaters, 35 pairs of gloves, 22 hats and various other winter garments were donated.

The Kelly Chapter currently has over 20 members doing Student-2-Student Tutoring and assisting teachers at Shields on a regular basis. Senior Mayra Cruz, a Chapter Officer who graduated from Shields Elementary School, gets the credit for initiating the Adopt-a-School approach as an ongoing activity instead of a standalone community project.

She stated, "Initially, we wanted to reach out to help the students from Shields to achieve with our School Supply Drive, then we worked out our Student-2-Student program and successfully completed our clothing drive.

I want to set up some SkillsUSA presentations for the 7th and 8th graders, so they can see how joining a professional student organization in high school can benefit them. I have a few more ideas with regards to mentoring and shadowing that we might be able to do."

Kelly's SkillsUSA Advisor, Mr. Lucas stated, "This Community Reach Out Project that the students have undertaken has been a real success story. It has allowed for more of our members to play an active and ongoing role. The administration at Shields Elementary School has been very receptive and appreciative of our Adopt-a-School program efforts and have played a significant role in its success."

Science Fair Winners At Shields

8th grade students from James Shields Elementary School participated in the Central Science Fair at Malcolm X College on Jan. 28th. Pictured in foreground are: Andrea Trejo (Excellent), Magdalena Flores (Outstanding), Anthony Solis (Excellent) and David Fajardo (Excellent). Principal Philip Salemi (background) announces that Magdalena Flores will be representing Shields at the Citywide Fair at the Museum of Science and Industry in March. The science teachers for 7th and 8th grade are: Mrs. Castaneda and Mrs. Lane.

Online Voting For River Restoration

Friends of the Chicago River is enlisting the public's support in an online voting competition to win a $30,000 grant for river restoration work. River Network has teamed up with MillerCoors for the third year in a row to award six grants to river based non-profits across the country - and Friends of the Chicago River is the only finalist in Illinois.

The grant will be used to expand the volunteer engagement program, the Chicago River Eco-Warriors to recruit more volunteers, buy more plants, tools and equipment, and dedicate more staff time to restoration work.

The grant is based on public voting through an online competition. The organization with the most votes will get $30,000, second place will get $10,000, third place will get $5,000, and the rest of the organizations will get $3,000. Vote at www.rivernetwork.org through March 20th at 7 p.m.

PJPII Warriors In Biddyball Playoffs

The "Warriors" Biddy Basketball team from Pope John Paul II School achieved a 7-6 win over St. Jane's White Team in the Catholic League first round playoffs at St. Richard gym on Feb. 27th. They are currently in 3rd place and will enter another playoff game this Sunday. Pictured in foreground are coach Tom Gronek, #17 Andre Balancar, #19 Mateo Padilla and Christian Alaves. In background are Nikolas Morgan and Mateo Valazquez.

Job Training For Middle Income

Chicago Career Tech, 177 N. State st., the city's innovative job retraining program is accepting applications for its third session. The program, which trains unemployed middle-income Chicagoans for technology-based careers, will expand capacity to accommodate up to 400 qualified participants. More than 150 business and nonprofit organizations now partner up with the program.

The six-month, six day -a-week program features classroom training, hands-on employer- and service-based learning with a business and non-profit organization, and career and professional development services through Challenger, Gray & Christmas.

Training for in-demand technology and project management are provided. Participants receive a weekly stipend in addition to any unemployment insurance benefits to which they may be entitled.

Some partners, such as OnSale.com, will be hosting numerous participants in the upcoming session with the hopes of hiring them following their successful completion of the program for positions as Digital Media Specialists.

Applications are available online at www.chicagocareertech.com through March 4th for the class session which will run late May through October.

Minimum requirements include: City of Chicago resident; high school diploma or GED; unemployed (after Jan. 1st, 2008), with previous annual income of $25,000 to $75,000; currently collecting or have exhausted unemployment insurance benefits; not currently enrolled in another job training program.

AARP Offers Tax Assistance

The American Association of retired Persons tax-aid volunteer program will offer free tax assistance with electronic filing at the McKinley Park Branch Library, 1915 W. 35th st. on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. through April 16th.

This program provides free tax help to people who cannot afford professional tax assistance, the disabled, the elderly and non-English speaking persons who wish to comply with their filing requirements. Preference will be given to persons 60 years of age and older. Appointments are required and must be made in person at the front circulation desk.

Symposium On President Lincoln

Some of the nation's top Abraham Lincoln authors and experts will assemble for a special one-day symposium at the Union League Club of Chicago, 65 W. Jackson boulevard and the Harold Washington Library, 400 S. State st. on Friday, March 4th.

The symposium will feature rarely seen original Abraham Lincoln and Civil War artifacts, some of which are from his presidential campaign and 1861 Inaugural Ball.

For more information, registration and cost details, visit www.ulcc.org/files/lincoln.pdf.

Irish Luncheon At Nazareth Church
