Visitors who wear a featured team's apparel on the weekend will receive a 20% discount off zoo admission.

Free activities: visitors will have the chance to met players from the weekend's featured team, along with the mascot. A scavenger hunt will teach facts about the team's players and zoo animals, associating sports skills with a team's iconic ani-mal or other animals within the zoo. Anyone who finishes the hunt can enter into a drawing for tickets to a game. Visitors can test their athletic abilities through inflatable sports centers and skill games on the West Mall.

Special Zoo Chats will be all about the animals within the Great Bear Wilderness exhibit and throughout the zoo. Visitors can try their hand at announcing memorable team moments at a broadcast

"karaoke" booth. A memorabilia museum will display rare play-er keepsakes, trophies and media keepsakes that tell the history of the featured team and its fans. Each weekend will include additional activities tailored to the featured team. The schedule includes Chicago Bulls Saturday and Sunday, July 9th and 10th; Chicago Bears July 16th and 17th; Chicago Cubs July 23rd and 24th; Chicago Fire July 30th and 31st; Chicago White Sox, Aug. 13th and 14th; Chicago Blackhawks, Aug. 27th and 28th; Chicago Wolves Sept. 3rd and 4th.

Congressman Dan Lipinski (IL-3) issued the following statement regarding his vote for H.R. 2278 to allow limited participation by the United States in the NATO-led operation in Libya. The permitted participation includes non-combat activities such as intelligence, search and rescue, refueling and surveillance.

"From the beginning, America's goals, strategy, and endgame in Libya have been murky," Lipinski said. "After a decade of warfare in the Middle East, I believe it is critical that we exercise caution and consideration before becoming too involved in another potentially costly and protract-

Rare Okapi Calf At Brookfield Zoo

The Chicago Zoological Society, which manages Brookfield Zoo, announces that an okapi was born on April 27th. The unnamed female calf and her mom Semliki, 8, are doing well. Currently, the calf spends the majority of her time off exhibit, but zoo guests may be lucky and catch glimpses of her in the outdoor yard at Habitat Africa! The Forest. Since her birth, the calf has spent the majority of her time in a quiet nesting area located off exhibit. When she is about 3 months old, guests will be able to see her spending more time outdoors.

"And the star-spangled banner forever shall wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!"

As we celebrate Independence Day, we are once again reminded that freedom is not free. Just as America fought for independence in 1776, American troops continue to defend freedom around the world today.

July Fourth is a day to honor the men and women who have sacrificed so much to protect our liberty. It's a day to proudly celebrate our great country and the ideals it represents.

Happy Birthday, America - let freedom ring forever!

New Approach For Taste of Chicago

The City of Chicago taken a approach to the 2011 Taste of Chicago by turning over the operations of the food festival to the Chicago Park District and incorporating several annual music fests into the summer event which will run through July

It will continue to be without an admission fee and reset its focus as a family-orientated celebration of local food and music.

The emphasis on big musical acts, which are expensive to program will be scaled back.

The park district will continue the partnership with the Illinois Restaurant Association which has helped to run the Taste of Chicago since its inception 30 years ago.

Four of the annual lakefront music festivals Viva Chicago, Chicago Country Music Festival, Celtic Fest Chicago and Chicago Gospel Music Festival will be incorporated into the Taste of Chicago, rather than be planned as stand-alone events.

The Chicago Blues and Jazz Festivals will continue to operate in Grant Park as standalone events on Sept. 2nd

DCASE will also continue to present free summer concerts and events in Millennium
