

Tutoring For Chinese Students

By Dr. R. Pletsch

Teachers and part time jobs at one time was almost everybody. In the 1960s through 80s many banks, real estate agencies, stores, and even fast food restaurants employed teachers after school and in the summer. Teachers proved to be more dependable than teens, but as salaries went up, the willingness to work for low, sometimes minimum wage, lessened. By the time I was a principal (1995), very few of my teachers had second jobs.

I myself, worked two jobs from 1975 to 1995. It gave my wife the ability to be a guilt-free stay-at-home mom. When I became a principal, my hours were too long and I was always on call, therefore, I had to resign my second job. That was okay because I got a nice salary increase anyway.

The internet age has made it possible for many to have flexible hours and work out of their homes. Some "new moms" do not miss a day's work and stay with their employer. A new influx of jobs comes from China. So many parents in China want their children to be fluent in American English that over one half a million Chinese students are taking "American classes" so that the children can attend American universities and be prepared for globally competitive marketplace.

I was told by college students here from China that there are a few companies that specialize in American tutors. They hire teachers as well as retired teachers. Most take classes that are scheduled after their classes, which might be 6 a.m. here in Chicago. Some have flexible time.

This additional income can be helpful, but it is not for everyone. You must have the energy for your regular classes that is the bulk of your pay. Most tutoring pays from $14 to $22 an hour, which is not easy to find elsewhere.

VIPKid seems to be the largest provider of tutors in China. To be hired you must have at least a Bachelor degree and one year of teaching experience -- no you do not need to speak or understand Chinese. Teachers of ESL only need to speak and possess English skills. This is why you can find ESL classes where the students speak many different languages.

One unpleasant experience that these tutors have expressed is that some of their younger students do not have the nuance of language and they can be what we consider crude, maybe even vulgar. Because of what they see on TV and that China often still considers us an enemy, the kids might consider us less than desirable friends. This is especially true for minority teachers because, if you think about it, minority actors are often the bad guy in the movies these kids see. Some of these kids are not prepared for people that are very different from them. I've lived through this for many years. I was often the first white male teacher my students had ever seen. I only hope that the mouth they expressed in September was not what it was when they left me in June.

Teachers, this might be an opportunity for you. Some no longer teach, except as tutors. Others, like teaching itself, find it is not for them.

39th Anniversary Mass For Saint John Paul II

By C.B. Strader

Saint John Paul II holds a special place in the hearts and homes of the people of Five Holy Martyrs Parish, as well as the Brighton Park community on the southwest side of Chicago, since he celebrated a Mass on October 5, 1979 at a special altar erected in our parish parking lot specifically for his visit.

The Mass was attended by thousands of people who crowded the lot and the streets before dawn just to catch a glimpse of our Holy Father and be a part of that historical day. The main part of this altar still remains in our lot and a Mass commemorating the anniversary of Saint John Paul II's visit is celebrated at this altar every year on the first Sunday of October. The Pope John Paul II Centrum Committee of our Parish worked tirelessly to raise over $100,000 in order to renovate this altar to make it a more permanent fixture in our community for individuals to come and honor Saint John Paul II in prayer.

The 39th anniversary Mass commemorating Saint John Paul II's visit to Five Holy Martyrs Parish will be celebrated on Sunday, Oct. 7th at 10:30 a.m. at the Papal Altar in the Parish parking lot. This primarily Polish celebration is well attended by many cultural, civic and Parish organizations -- a beautiful representation of Polonia in Chicago.

The main celebrant at the Mass will be Most Reverend Andrew P. Wypych, Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago, as well as former Pastor of Five Holy Martyrs (1996-1999), and the homilist at the Mass will be Reverend Canon Jerzy Filek, Pastor and Curator of Assumption of the B.V.M./Our Lady of the Highlands in Ludzmiery, Poland. Attending this year's Mass will be the members of the 600th Anniversary Committee of the Cult of the Miraculous Figure of Our Lady of Ludzmiery in thanksgiving for 25 years of existence in Chicago.

The Committee will host a jubilee banquet at 3:00 p.m. that day at the Polish Highlanders Alliance of North America Highlander House, 4808 S. Archer Ave. Tickets are $65 person.

During this year's Papal Anniversary Mass, it will be the eighth time that we will not only pray and thank God for the gift and presence of Saint John Paul II among us, but we will also pray to him, asking him to continually bless us and intercede for us.

For 31 years, Pope John Paul II has been with us spiritually during these anniversary Masses, but since 2011, he has been with us during the Mass physically -- in the presence of his blood.

On Sept. 24th, 2011, Five Holy Martyrs Parish was very fortunate to have received a relic of Saint John Paul II from His Eminence, Stanislaw

Games Party At Rhine Post VFW

All proceeds are designated for hospitalized veterans and other veteran projects.

SAINT JOHN PAUL II

Cardinal Dzwisz, the Archbishop of Krakow, Poland, and the former personal secretary to Pope John Paul II.

The relic is a drop of Saint John Paul II's blood on a cloth protected by a lunula, a small, round glass encasement. The lunula has been mounted into a reliquary, a vessel in which a relic is held and exposed.

Since receiving this relic, Five Holy Martyrs Parish has begun a new tradition on the first weekend of every month by offering up our petitions to God through his intercession and venerating his relic at the weekend Masses; reciting a prayer to him as a community of believers; and finally by receiving a special blessing with the relic at the end of Mass.

Immediately after the Sunday 9:00 a.m. English Mass and the 10:30 a.m. Polish Mass, parishioners and friends are invited to gather in the Bishop Abramowicz Parish Hall for cake, coffee, and fellowship.

We hope that everyone will mark their calendars to attend this unique celebration. It is a wonderful reason for family and friends to come back to Brighton Park and reminisce. All cultural, civic and neighborhood organizations are invited to attend and walk in the entrance procession. Refreshments will be served in the Bishop Abramowicz Hall after the Mass. In case of inclement weather, the Mass will be celebrated in the church.

For more information about the Papal Visit Anniversary Mass or the renovation of the outdoor Papal Altar, contact the Parish Office at (773) 254-3636, Monday through Friday, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.
