

In-Person Classes And In-Person Help

By Dr. R. Pletsch

The school year has returned for students at St. Therese Chinese Catholic School, St. Barbara Campus 2859 S. Throop. The school is offering both in-person and remote learning for its students with the parents having the choice. St. Therese is a two-time National Blue Ribbon winning elementary school, receiving the award in 2011 and 2018. If you are new to the area or looking for a school that your child can have in-person learning at a location that is following all Covid-19 safety guidelines, this may be your choice. Check out their website sttheresechicago.org

CPS is considering a program to help families that are having a hardship with their children's remote learning. If this sounds like something that would help your family, CPS has a survey to evaluate the need, but it must be completed by August 28th.

These surveys were sent to the homes of student age 14 and under. If your child is selected, they would be sent to a school near home and all safety requirements would be adhered to. The children will have a teacher assistant in the classroom, not to provide educational support, just normal attendance and care. If this sounds good for your children, complete the survey.

It may be the best, since in-person classes are not now available. Many parents complained because the Board had announced its hybrid program with in-school as part of the program.

When the Board changed its programs, it left many parents with an unforeseen problem. This may help you, but the surveys returned will be the only information that CPS has to determine if the program would be feasible. It is hoped by many officials that returning to normal is only a matter of time.

Railroad Project At 87th - Pulaski

Metra forces have begun work to replace the railroad crossing at 87th Street and Pulaski Road on its SouthWest Service Line. The work will close both roads at the crossing to all traffic through Sept. 3rd.

Crossing projects generally include the removal and replacement of rails, ties, ballast, rubber panels and asphalt and are part of the regularly scheduled maintenance of Metra's assets.

However, this project involves additional work, including repositioning of the intersection's railroad crossing gates closer to the tracks, adding pedestrian gates and replacing the signal bungalow.

The total project, including gate, track and signal work is expected to cost about $2.3 million with about $350,000 of the project costs funded by the Illinois Department of Transportation.

Detour signs advise motorists to use 95th street to cross the tracks during construction. Motorists on Pulaski road will be detoured via Southwest Highway and Cicero to 95th street while those traveling on 87th street will follow detours along either Cicero or Kedzie to 95th street.

Police Initiative For 9th District

Chicago Police Department Superintendent David O. Brown announced the expansion of the Neighborhood Policing Initiative to the 9th, 10th, and 11th Districts. New District Coordination Officers will work with community members to resolve public safety issues through collaboration and remedy neighborhood issues with the help of beat officers, detectives, aldermen, area businesses, and sister agencies.

While patrol officers have little time to create connections as they work from one radio assignment to another, the initiative trains officers to become DCOs, whose job instead focuses on building relationships with residents, which are proven to lead to better community tips on crimes and decrease the amount of 9-1-1 calls for service.

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act), signed into law on March 27, 2020, contains several provisions that are relevant to charitable giving.

Individuals who do not itemize their deductions on their federal tax returns can claim a deduction for up to $300 ($600 for a household filing jointly) in charitable giving. This new deduction (on top of the standard deduction) reduces a donor's adjusted gross income, resulting in a reduction of taxable income and tax savings.

Individuals who itemize may deduct cash gifts up to 100% of their adjusted gross income (AGI) compared to the typical 60% allowance.

Before acting on any of the provisions, please consider discussing them with your professional advisors to determine their applicability to your individual tax situation.

Expiration Date
For Senior Drivers

Illinois Secretary of State Jesse White announced that the expiration date for valid driver's licenses held by Illinois drivers who are 75 years of age or older has been extended for a period of one year past the licenses' current 2020 expiration date.

Letters are being sent to drivers that qualify for this extension. Records on the Secretary of State's computer system have been updated to show the new 2021 expiration dates and law enforcement agencies have been notified.

Drivers who are suspended or revoked do not qualify for the one-year extension.

Expiration dates for all other driver's licenses/ID cards and license plate stickers have been extended until Nov. 1, 2020. The public should consider using online services at www.cyberdriveillinois.com when possible instead of visiting a facility due to heavy volume.

Beluga Whale Birth
At Shedd Aquarium

By Johnny Ford, P.R.

Bella, a 14-year-old beluga whale at Shedd Aquarium, gave birth to an energetic calf on Friday, August 21st at 8:42 p.m. While there are several critical milestones ahead for the new calf, the animal care team is hopeful and encouraged by what they have seen so far. Mom and calf are spending time alone behind the scenes to bond and focus on care.

Bella is a first-time mother, and current scientific knowledge of belugas and dolphins is that first-time mothers often experience a higher calf mortality rate. Observing and scientifically documenting calf interactions is extremely valuable to further identification and understanding of the challenges and successes associated with the species and first-time births, making data collection of the growing calf even more critical. The animal care team remains cautiously optimistic and will continue around-the-clock monitoring to ensure that mom and calf have all the support that they need.

"As the calf swam to the surface and took its first breath, it brought with it the palpable hope of new life and fresh beginnings -- something we all appreciate," said Dr. Bridget Coughlin, president and CEO of Shedd Aquarium. "We at Shedd Aquarium continue to be humbled by the opportunity we have to share this excitement with the public and create meaningful moments of wonder and learning through the aquatic animal world."

Bella delivered the calf after nearly 15 hours of labor. While most beluga calves are usually born tail first -- allowing them to unfurl their flukes before the final push and swim to the surface for that all-important first breath -- Bella's calf arrived headfirst. Despite this, the calf immediately powered itself to the surface.

As is often the case in the days following delivery, the calf is not yet independently nursing. The care team is in the water every three hours, assisting with feeding the calf. The calf weighs in at 139 pounds and measures 5'3" in length. Animal care and veterinary staff were also able to determine that the calf is male.

"Beluga gestation is more than a year long, and we used this time for careful preparations and planning," said Peggy Sloan, chief animal operations officer at Shedd Aquarium. "Our animal care team is thrilled and grateful for this calf's

Awareness Month For Immunizations

The Illinois Department of Public Health is stressing the importance of vaccinations during COVID-19. Vaccines help protect children from diseases like chickenpox and pertussis, which remain common.

The immunization requirements for the 2020-21 school year are the same as last year.

Adults should get a flu vaccine each year and receive a Td (tetanus and diphtheria) booster vaccine or Tdap (tetanus, diphtheria, pertussis) every 10 years. Tdap is also recommended for pregnant women during each pregnancy. Adults 50 years and older are recommended to receive the shingles vaccine. Adults 65 and older are recommended to receive both pneumococcal vaccines, although one year apart.

Some adults younger than 65 years with certain conditions are also recommended to receive one or more pneumococcal vaccinations. Adults may need other vaccines (such as hepatitis A and B) based on age, pregnancy status, occupation, travel, medical, and vaccination history, and/or other considerations.

For more information about immunizations, including vaccination schedules for infants, children, teens and adults, visit <http://www.dph.illinois.gov/topics-services/prevention-wellness/immunization>. Adults can see what vaccines are recommended at <https://www2.cdc.gov/nip/adultimm-sched/>.
