

Scouts at Camp Kishwaukee

Over the weekend of May 2nd, Members of Boy Scout Troop 1441, sponsored by St. Mary Star of the Sea Holy Name Society along with family members held a campout at Camp Kishwaukee, Plano, IL.

Scouts learned cooking skills preparing meals, went hiking while working on plant and animal identifications to complete achievements for advancements and also enjoyed fishing, outdoor games and campfires. Any boys ages 11 to 17 from any school, who are interested in Scouting can have a parent contact Ed Melkonian (for English) at (312) 316-5825 or Angie Kozel (for Spanish) at (773) 851-7855 for further information.

Pictured in front row are Andres Burgos and Gabriel Hernandez, Second row: Luis Burgos (Patrol Leader), Minerva Gonzalez (Committee Member) and Ian Hernandez. Top row: Heriberto Burgos (Committee Member), Ed Melkonian (Asst. Scout Master) and John Masura (Scout Master).

Scout Master John Masura explains how to cook foil pack meals over hot coals at Camp Kishwaukee.