The Chicago Park District will present “The Dinosaur of Lake Michigan” at McKinley Park, 2210 W. Pershing rd. on Saturday, Aug. 22nd from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. and Marquette Park, 6743 S. Kedzie on Friday, Aug. 28th from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. Mary is fascinated by the legends of monsters in the Great Lakes. She invites audiences to join her treasure hunt for the “dinosaur of Lake Michigan”, also known as a sturgeon. Kerfuffle and Rabbitfoot Puppetry use realistic animal puppets made out of recyclable items, live music, and physical storytelling to bring this participatory play to life. Best enjoyed by children ages 3-6 with their caregivers. Visit www.kerfuffletvy.com
